Don't think women can be funny? Let Kathleen McCann, Fia Perera and Dava Krause prove you wrong

Park City, UT - December 10, 2010 - Women can't be funny right? The Egyptian Theatre hopes to answer that question once and for all this January with three very funny females. Local Park City comedian Kathleen McCann is bringing two nationally acclaimed comedians to Park City in feature Fia Perera and headliner Dava Krause.

Feature Fia Perera is innapropriate, but then the best comics usually are. She has her own series of webisodes titled "Innapropriate Fairytales" that are anything but the stories we all remember as kids. Perera stays busy with performances at the best comedy clubs across the nation in cities like Los Angeles, New York, San Francisco and Boston. She is also an accomplished actress and writer with ten plays she has written being produced in New York with great success. She can also be found in the upcoming film "Crossing Over" with Harrison Ford, Ashley Judd and Sean Penn.

Hugh Laurie has said that Dava Krause has "a brilliant comedic face". Still need a reason to check out headliner Dava Krause at The Egyptian Theatre? Krause is a touring comedian who performs regularly at clubs like The Hollywood Improv, The Ice House and on Tom Arnold's show "Laughing with the Stars" at The Laugh Factory. She currently has recurring role on House M.D. on the Fox channel. Her debut comedy rock album "Child of the 80s" is available online through 300 stores including iTunes and Amazon. She also produces and hosts a monthly show in Hollywood featuring some of the top musical comics in the business called "Hotel Comedy". Dava is a National Voice Over artist that can be heard in video games and radio and television commercials nationwide.

January's Stand-Up Comedy shows will be Friday and Saturday January 7th and 8th at 8:30 PM, doors open at 8:00 PM. Tickets are $18 in advance, $20 at the door, and $25 for cabaret seating. Call 435-649-9371 or visit www.parkcityshows.com to purchase tickets.
