A Year With Frog and Toad presented by The Egyptian Theatre University of Utah Youtheatre

Park City, UT - November 11, 2010 -The Egyptian U of U Youtheatre in Park City is excited for the first full production since the two joined together in the summer. A Year with Frog and Toad will feature Park City Youtheatre students along with a number of the Salt Lake City students. Arnold Lobel's well-loved characters hop from the page to the stage in Robert and Willie Reale's musical A Year With Frog And Toad. Conceived by Mr. Lobel's daughter, Adrienne Lobel, A Year With Frog And Toad remains true to the spirit of the original stories as it follows two great friends, the cheerful and popular Frog and the rather grumpy Toad through four fun-filled seasons. Waking from hibernation in the spring, they proceed to plant gardens, swim, rake leaves and go sledding, learning life lessons along the way, including a most important one about friendship and rejoicing in the attributes that make each of us different and special.

There will be three performances open to the public at The Egyptian Theatre, Friday and Saturday Dcember 3rd and 4th at 7:30 PM, and a matinee December 4th at 2:00 PM. Tickets are $7 for children under 12 and $10 for adults. Call 435-649-9371 or visit www.parkcityshows.com to purchase tickets.

Registration for Spring semester classes will begin Thanksgiving weekend. There are classes available for every age from first grade to high school. The more advanced classes will participate in the performance of The Box Car Children at the end of the semester. For more information please visit www.parkcityshows.com or leave a message at 435-649-9371 ext. 27.
