Spend Christmas at The Egyptian Theatre with Kurt Bestor

Park City, UT - November 27, 2010 - A Utah favorite, Kurt Bestor brings some Holiday cheer to Park City with his solo piano concert at The Egyptian Theatre. For twenty two years Emmy-award-winning composer Kurt Bestor has delighted audiences throughout the country with his popular holiday shows. Mixing his affable on-stage banter with exquisite arrangements, it's a must-see holiday concert for thousands each year. While usually surrounded by a chamber orchestra and band, Bestor is presenting for the first time a solo piano concert entitled "One Silent Night."

Asked what makes this show so special, Bestor smiled and said, "Sitting at a piano, playing my deepest feelings about this special time of year is my preferred way of performing. It really brings me closer to my audience. I'm not sure why it has taken so long to do it."

Bestor's "One Silent Night" solo piano concerts will take the the audience on a journey from magical Christmas's past to fun Yuletides to come as he performs an entertaining mix of favorite Christmas standards as only he can. As a special treat The Mary G. Steiner Egyptian Theatre will be hosting Kurt Bestor on Christmas Eve, December 24th and Christmas Day, December 25th at 6:00 PM both nights. Tickets are $25 for reserved theatre seating, and $30 for cabaret table seating. Call 435-649-9371 or visit www.parkcityshows.com to purchase tickets.
