Tere Joyce and feature Franchie San Pedro bring their brand of humor to The Egyptian Theatre with MC Kathleen McCann

Park City, UT - October 14, 2010 - Stand-Up comedy returns to The Egyptian Theatre this November with headliner Tere Joyce and feature Franchie San Pedro. Local comedian Kathleen McCann returns to MC the night of laughs. Shows will be Friday and Saturday November 5th and 6th starting at 8:30 PM. Tickets are $15 in advance, $18 at the door, and $20 for cabaret and balcony seating.

Tere Joyce has toured as a professional stand-up comedian for many years. In 2003 she was a top ten finalist on the first season of NBC's Last Comic Standing. She hoped for the sitcom in the sky and an Emmy on her desk, but instead she found herself in a raid by the DEA at a medical marijuana dispensary. The experience changed her creative focus and she currently has her own show "Cannabis Star Radio" on the New Dissident Radio Network. Twice a month Tere is the Southern California liaison for NORML (National Organization for Reform of Marijuana Laws). Joyce also performs regularly with "The Free Speech Show" for ComedyNation.com. She is currently working on her one woman show "Freedom of Joyce."

Franchie San Pedro has been a stand-up comic for the last 25 years. He started at the comedy store in Hollywood, he has opened for Van Halen, Los Lobos and Dwight Yokum. He has been on Que Pasa and comedy time as well.
