Park City's historic Egyptian Theatre

Park City Follies returns for the 11th year to the Egyptian Theatre

For Immediate Release: Park City, UT, April 18, 2011-

Park City Follies returns for its 11th year with their annual lampoon of life, love, and developments in Park City. Brought to you anew each year with timely topics and farcical fodder by the "Follies Creative Team", this year's original show is entitled, "No Follies Left Behind".

Paul Tan, Director of The Follies, put it nicely when he said, "Anyone and any thing can be fodder for the Follies. Fair warning. But if you consider yourself a true Parkite, you must show up for a chance to laugh at yourself and your fellow community members. This is when we get to take ourselves a little less seriously."

Annette Velarde, Follies Lead Writer, emphasized that the annual Follies show is a community event with an all-volunteer cast. "The tourists are gone and the town is ours again, for a moment," she said.

The group puts this show together each year as a fundraiser for the Egyptian Theatre. "It's about being local and supporting local," she explained as all proceeds from ticket sales go directly to the Egyptian Theatre's general fund.

Egyptian Theatre Director, Randy Barton, warns "The Follies sells out every year, and people who wait to get their tickets are often disappointed. And as we have really expanded our marketing outreach to new audiences, I anticipate there could be more competition for seats than ever."

The annual Park City Follies is presented by the Park Record.

Tickets are on sale now through the Egyptian Theatre Box Office or online at www.parkcityshows.com.

Shows are two weekends: Thursday, April 28-Saturday, April 30 and Thursday, May 5- Saturday, May 7. Show time is 8:00pm "Park City time" with doors open at 7:30pm.

Tickets (fee's included): $25 for Reserved Seating. Additionally, an extremely limited number of cabaret-table seats are available for $35.
